1. BACKGROUND

1.1 THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT 2 OF 2000 (“PAIA”) AND THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT 4 OF 2013 (“POPI”)

PAIA provides for the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State or another person, where any person requires such access to exercise or protect a legitimate right.

POPI provides for inter alia the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies and the regulation thereof. POPI has amended portions of PAIA and has established the Information Regulator, which has replaced the South African Human Rights Commission insofar as PAIA is concerned.

Should a request be made in terms of PAIA, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to other applicable legislative and/or regulatory requirements, except where PAIA expressly provides that the information may or must not be released.

Section 51 of PAIA, requires that all private bodies compile a manual providing for the procedure to request information held by such private body, as well as certain information regarding the processing of personal information.

1.2 WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS MANUAL?

This manual has been prepared in terms of section 51 PAIA and updated in the light of POPI. (“the Manual”). This Manual applies to AFGRI Group Holdings Proprietary Limited, its affiliates and subsidiaries, as reflected in Schedule 1 hereto (collectively “the AFGRI Group”). This Manual is intended to:

- give a description of the records held by and on behalf of the AFGRI Group; and
- to outline the procedure to be followed and the fees payable when requesting access to any of these records in the exercise of the right of access to information with a view of enabling requesters to obtain records which they are entitled to in a quick, easy and accessible manner.

This Manual is available for public inspection:

- at the physical address of the AFGRI Group, recorded in paragraph 4 below, free of charge;
- on the AFGRI Group’s website/s, free of charge;
- in hard copy, on request by any person (along with payment of a prescribed fee).

4. AUTOMATIC DISCLOSURES

Section 51(1)(b)(ii) of PAIA*

A private body may, on a voluntary basis, make available a description of categories of records that are automatically available without a person having to request access in terms of PAIA.

The only fee for access to these records may be a prescribed fee for reproduction.

The following categories of records are automatically available for inspection, purchase or photocopying. You do not need to request this information in terms of PAIA. You may request these categories of information from the Information Officer at informationofficer@afgri.co.za :

- Newsletters / magazines intended for public viewing;
- Pamphlets / brochures intended for public viewing; and
- Other records of a public nature, typically those disclosed on the AFGRI Group's website.

5. TYPES AND CATEGORIES OF RECORDS

5.1. RECORDS HELD IN ACCORDANCE WITH OTHER LEGISLATION

Section 51(1)(b)(iii) of PAIA*

To the extent applicable to its operations, the AFGRI Group keeps information and documents as may be required in terms of legislation other than PAIA.

Certain legislation provides that private bodies shall allow access to specific records, upon request thereof. Unless disclosure of a record is prohibited in terms of PAIA, POPI, any other legislation, regulations, contractual agreements or otherwise and provided an interested party is entitled thereto, the AFGRI Group shall make available for inspection such records requested by an interested party. Any disclosure will always be subject to meeting the requirements and conditions of PAIA, the applicable legislation and the AFGRI Group's internal policies and procedures.

Below is a non-exhaustive list of legislation that may require the AFGRI Group to keep records.

5.2 SUBJECT CATEGORIES OF RECORDS

 Section 51(1)(b)(iv) of PAIA*

This clause serves as a reference to the categories of information the AFGRI Group holds. The information is classified and grouped according to records relating to the following subjects and categories:

5.2.1 Personnel records

"Personnel" refers to any person who works for or provides services to or on behalf of the AFGRI Group and receives, or is entitled to receive, remuneration and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of the AFGRI Group. It includes, without limitation, directors (executive and non-executive), all permanent, temporary and parttime staff, as well as contract workers. Personal records provided by personnel may include:

- records provided by a third party relating to the AFGRI Group personnel;
- Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contractual and quasi-legal records, including job applications;
- Internal evaluation records and other internal records;
- Correspondence relating to, or emanating from, personnel (internal and external to the organization); and
- Training schedules and material;
- Payment records (and beneficiary payments), including banking details.

5.2.2 Client Related records

"Client" refers to any natural or juristic entity that receives products or services from the AFGRI Group. This includes prospective clients who submit applications to the AFGRI Group, but which or who ultimately do not become the AFGRI Group clients. Client related records may include:

- records provided by a client to a third party acting for or on behalf of the AFGRI Group;
- records provided by a third party (for example, records from a financial adviser);
- records generated by or within the AFGRI Group relating to its clients;
- Transactional records and recorded call centre calls;
- Correspondence with a client that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature;
- records pertaining to a client retrieved from other sources, i.e. credit bureau.

5.2.3 Private Body records

These records include, but are not limited to, the records which pertain to the AFGRI Group's own affairs. These include:

- Financial records;
- Operational records;
- Information technology;
- Communication;
- Administrative records, such as contracts and service level agreements;
- Product records;
- Statutory records;
- Internal policies and procedures; and
- Human resources records.

5.2.4 Other Party records

These records include:

- records held by the AFGRI Group pertaining to other parties, including without limitation, financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party (for example third party beneficiaries or employees of a client), and records third parties have provided about the AFGRI Group's contractors / suppliers.
- The AFGRI Group may possess records pertaining to other parties including, but not limited to, contractors, suppliers, and service providers and such other parties may possess records that can be said to belong to the AFGRI Group.

Important to note:

The accessibility of the records may be subject to the grounds of refusal as set out in paragraph 6 of this Manual. In addition, records deemed confidential on the part of a third party, will necessitate permission from such third party, before the AFGRI Group will consider access and disclosure of the requested records.

6. ACCESS PROCEDURE

 Section 51(1)(b)(iv) of PAIA*

Any person requesting access to information in terms of PAIA and this Manual (a “requester”) must follow the procedure set out in this clause. It is important to note that:

- Access to a record can be refused based on the grounds set out in paragraph 6 below;
- An application for access to a record is subject to certain limitations if the requested record falls within a certain category as specified within Chapter 4 of PAIA; and
- If it is reasonably suspected that a person has obtained access to information and records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such a person.

6.1 ACCESS REQUEST PROCEDURE

Section 51(1)(b)(iv) of PAIA*

A requester must complete the prescribed form, enclosed herewith as Schedule 2 (“Form C Access Request Form”) and submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address recorded in paragraph 2. A fee or deposit may be payable.

To facilitate a timely response:

- The Access Request Form must be comprehensively and clearly completed in type or block letters.
- Proof of identity is required. Please enclose a copy of the requester’s identification document.
- Every applicable question must be answered. If a question does not apply “N/A” should be stated in response to that question. If there is nothing to disclose in reply to a particular question “Nil” should be stated in response to that question.

The Access Request Form must be completed with enough particularity to enable the Information Officer to identify:

- The record(s) requested;
- The identity number of the requester;
- The form of access required if the request is granted;
- The postal address, fax number or electronic mail address of the requester; and
- The requester must also state that he or she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state the nature of the right to be exercised or protected. In addition, the requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally. The requester will be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied.

If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he must state the manner and the particulars so required.

6.2 PAYMENT OF FEES

Fees, if applicable, must be paid prior to access being given to the requested record. Payment details can be obtained from the Information Officer and can be made via a direct deposit. Proof of payment must accompany the Access Request Form submitted. The following fees are (or may be) payable:

- Request fee
- Access fee
- Reproduction fee
- Request fee
- Deposit

Note that the requester may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the tender or payment of the deposit.

6.2.1 Request Fee

An initial "request fee" is payable on submission of the Access Request Form. The prescribed fee is set out below in Schedule 3. This fee is not applicable to requesters (data subjects), seeking access to records that contain their personal information in terms of POPI.

6.2.2 Access Fee

If the request for access is successful, an access fee must be paid. This fee is for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the record(s). The access fee will be calculated based on the prescribed fees set out below in Schedule 3.

6.2.3 Reproduction Fee

This fee is applicable in respect of documents/records which are voluntarily disclosed (see paragraph 4 (Automatic Disclosure) above). This is for reproduction, copying and transcribing the relevant documents / records. The reproduction fee will be calculated based on the prescribed fees set out below in Schedule 3.

6.2.4 Deposit

If the search for and the preparation of the record for disclosure would, in the opinion of the Information Officer, require more than 6 hours, the requester may be required to pay as a deposit, equal to one third of the access fee (the fee which will be payable if the request is granted). Note that the requester may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the tender or payment of the deposit. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access which is subsequently refused, then the Information Officer must refund the deposit to the requester. The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any processing, or any further processing can take place.

6.3 NOTIFICATION OF DECISION

The Information Officer will, within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect. The 30 day period, within which the AFGRI Group has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. (For example, the time period may be extended if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires the AFGRI Group to search for information held at another office of the AFGRI Group.)

The Information Officer will notify the requester in writing should an extension be required. The requester may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the extension.

6.4 THIRD PARTY NOTIFICATION

The AFGRI Group must take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom or which a requested record relates if the disclosure of that records would –

- involve the disclosure of personal information about that third party;
- involve the disclosure of trade secrets of that third party; any other financial, commercial, scientific or technical information (other than trade secrets) of that third party;
- likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of that third party;
- reasonably be expected to put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations; or
- prejudice that third party in commercial competition;
- constitute an action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement or otherwise; or
- involve the disclosure of information about research being, or to be, carried out by or on behalf of a third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to expose the third party, a person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of the third party, or the subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage.

The AFGRI Group will inform the third party as soon as reasonably possible, but in any event, within 21 days after that request is received. Within 21 days of being informed of the request, the third party may-

- make written or oral representations to the Information Officer why the request for access should be refused; or
- give written consent for the disclosure of the record to the requester.
- the AFGRI Group will notify the third party of the outcome of the request. If the request is granted, adequate reasons for granting the request will be given.

The third party may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the decision within 30 days after notice is given, after which the requester will be given access to the record after the expiry of the 30-day period.

7 GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

Subject to the provisions of Chapter 4 of PAIA, the AFGRI Group may refuse a request for information on the following basis:

- Personal Information of a Third Party (Natural Person)
Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person (including a deceased person) which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;

- Safety

Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;

- Commercial Information of a Third Party

Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:

- Trade secrets of that third party;
- Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; and
- Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the AFGRI Group or if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in business negotiations or commercial competition; and
- confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement or legislation.

- Commercial Information of the AFGRI Group

Information on the commercial activities of the AFGRI Group, which may include:

- Trade secrets of the AFGRI Group;
- Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the AFGRI Group; and
- Information, that if disclosed, in could put the AFGRI Group at a disadvantage in any business negotiations or commercial competition; and
- A computer program which is owned by the AFGRI Group and which is protected by copyright.

- Legal Proceedings

Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;

- Research

The research information of the AFGRI Group or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the institution, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;

8 REMEDIES

8.1 INTERNAL REMEDIES

The AFGRI Group does not have internal appeal procedures. Therefore, the decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Information Officer will have to exercise external remedies at their disposal.

8.2 EXTERNAL REMEDIES

All complaints, by a requester or a third party, can be made to the Information Regulator or a court, in the manner prescribed below.

9 COMPLAINTS TO THE INFORMATION REGULATOR

The requester or third party, as the case may be, may submit a complaint in writing to the Information Regulator, within 180 days of the decision, alleging that the decision was not in compliance with the provisions of PAIA. The Information Regulator will investigate the complaint and reach a decision - which may include a decision to investigate, to take no further action or to refer the complaint to the Enforcement Committee established in terms of POPI.

The Information Regulator may serve an enforcement notice confirming, amending or setting aside the impugned decision, which must be accompanied by reasons.

10 APPLICATION TO COURT

An application to court maybe brought in the ordinary course. For purposes of PAIA, any reference to an application to court includes an application to a Magistrates' Court.

11 DETAILS ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The following phrases shall, unless otherwise stated bear corresponding meanings as follows:

We endeavour to enter into written agreements to ensure that other parties comply with our confidentiality and privacy requirements, but remember that personal information may also be disclosed where we have a legal duty or a legal right to do so.

Internal cross-border transfers, as well as external cross-border transfers of information are subject to the provisions of POPI.

11.5 SECURITY MEASURES

The AFGRI Group takes extensive information security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of personal information in the AFGRI Group's possession. These measures include the implementation of:

- Firewalls;
- Virus protection software and update protocols;
- Logical and physical access control; and
- Secure setup of hardware and software making up our information technology infrastructure.

The AFGRI Group takes appropriate technical and organizational measures designed to ensure that personal data remain confidential and secure against unauthorized or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage. Please note that notwithstanding the contents of this clause, no method of storage is 100% secure. Therefore, while we strive to use commercially acceptable measures designed to protect personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.
